

Tips for LANGUAGE LEARNING

With a Growth Mindset

1

BE WILLING TO MAKE A LOT OF MISTAKES.

Mistakes help me learn.

2

FOCUS ON INCREASING PROFICIENCY.

I know what my current performance level is, I've identified what I need to improve to reach the next level, and I have a plan for how to get there.

SELF-ASSESS & SET GOALS.

I reflect on my progress over time and use feedback from teachers, classmates, and others to improve.

4

BE RESOURCEFUL.

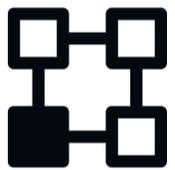

I use tools and strategies to understand and to be understood.

5

LOOK FOR PATTERNS.

I notice how words change depending on how they're used.

6

SEEK OUT OPPORTUNITIES TO USE LANGUAGE.

I understand that I will expand my skills and build confidence with each target language interaction inside and outside of class.

PERSEVERE TO UNDERSTAND.

I can figure out the message even if I don't understand all the words.

8

EMBRACE THE PROCESS.

I know that learning a language takes consistent effort over time. I understand that frustration and confusion can be a natural part of the process and so I use strategies to turn roadblocks into opportunities.

9

ASK FOR & OFFER HELP.

I understand that learning a language requires a lot of support. I ask for and give help when needed.

CELEBRATE SUCCESS!

Learning a language is an AWESOME accomplishment and so I celebrate my successes—both small and large—with others along the way.
